CALL FOR ENTRIES

The International Image Contest will take place during the Thirteenth Edition of the International Image Festival (FINI), in the city of Pachuca de Soto, Hidalgo, Mexico, on April 18 - 26, 2024 and will have the following

RULES OF PARTICIPATION

I. General Aspects

The contest is part of the International Image Festival (FINI), in accordance with the institutional purposes and in favor of promoting culture and arts.

The International Image Festival FINI 2024, will have as main topic SUSTAINABLE MOBILITY, which is defined as "one capable of satisfying society's needs to move freely, access, communicate, trade or establish relationships without sacrificing other current or future basic human or ecological values" (Megalopolis Environmental Commission, 2018). Sustainable mobility seeks to achieve a low-carbon and low-emission transportation model that, in addition to being healthy, favors the improvement of urban quality of life and collective well-being, as well as the creation of comfortable public spaces that favor citizen coexistence.

For this reason, the registered works must show or reflect the positive impact of sustainable mobility with respect to the goals of one or more of the 17 objectives of the 2030 Agenda, among others:

- Health benefits
- Benefits in the economy of families and cities.
- Benefits produced by less consumption of fossil fuels.
- Better air quality
- Less subsoil degradation
- Less noise in the cities
- Savings in travel time
- Safe, appropriate, lighted and enough infrastructure
- Transport oriented cities' design
- Non-motorized sustainable mobility and pedestrian zones
- Sustainable public transportation and massive public transportation
- More bridges or more road safety education?
- Pedestrian, non-motorized vehicles, and motorized transport coexistence
- Responsible use of vehicles to improve environment's quality
- More walking to improve health
- Healthier and safer mobility
- Peaceful cities through sustainable mobility or through traffic calming measures.
- Inclusive and accessible public spaces through sustainable mobility
- Smart mobility

II. Objective of the International Image Festival

To contribute to the integral formation of university students and the society's cultural development; sensibilize the community on issues of urgent attention through images; recognize, promote, stimulate, and disseminate the works that in the different image genres, expressions, and applications are carried out by both Mexicans and people from other latitudes and international contexts.

III. Terms and requirements

1. This call for entries is divided into the following categories:

- a. State of Hidalgo: for those Mexicans born in Hidalgo.
- b. National: for Mexicans who were not born in Hidalgo.
- c. International: any person who is not Mexican.

2. To register in the STATE OF HIDALGO category, they shall prove that they are native from any of the 84 municipalities of the State of Hidalgo, with a legal copy of their birth certificate.

3. To register in the NATIONAL category, they shall prove with their voting credential or valid passport that they are Mexican by birth or by naturalization.

4. To register in the INTERNATIONAL category, they shall prove their nationality with a VALID PASSPORT.

When required by the situation, they must have a valid visa, issued in accordance with the Mexican Immigration laws, the above in accordance with the guidelines of this Call for Entries.

Participants in this category whose nationality so requires, and if international transit is necessary through the United States of America, must have a valid U.S. Visa, or a special travel permit, as appropriate.

Participants in the INTERNATIONAL category must be able to travel to and stay in Mexico from April 18-26, 2024.

5. Participants shall be 18 years old at the time of the closing date of this call for entries and will be validated through the voting credential or valid Passport.

6. The contest will be divided into the three categories mentioned above and, in each of them, into the following genres:

- a. Photography (analog or digital)
- b. Alternative Techniques (digital graphics, photomontage, or collage)
- c. Short film (between 60 seconds and 30 minutes)
- d. Poster (free technique)

7. The participants, regardless of the category and genre in which they are participating, they have the responsibility to prove, at the moment they are required to do so, they are the authors and owners of the patrimonial, intellectual, and artistic rights of the work with which they are participating. If the work includes the image of older people and/or minors, music, logos, photographs, or any other, they shall prove they have the necessary permits to use them.

For the above, they shall download the DECLARATION OF ORIGINALITY LETTER from the following link (<https://...>) and send it under the corresponding guidelines.

8. Participants may only participate in one of the three categories. If one or more registers in different categories are done, the first register shall be considered and void the others. Nonetheless, they may register in the same category in more than one genre, this implies carrying out the whole register process according to the genre number he/she is participating in.

9. The works with which the contestants are participating must have been created within the four years previous to the closing of this Call for Entries.

10. This Call is not open to administrative, academic or management personnel, or those in social service in professional practice in those offices, in order to ensure the legality of the contest.
